*This is just a little introduction to set the mood for the rest of my fanfic. The sections will go in this order: The Beginning, My Shinji-kun, My Asuka-chan, My Ayanami-san, and My Savior. My idea for this fanfic came to me while I was in the middle of class. It will help a lot if you have seen the whole Evangelion television series including the movies.

Dreams of Children â€" The Beginning

Asuka: Mama! Mama where are you? Mama?

It is a dark and desolate hallway. Where is the end? Is there an end? Little Asuka Soryu runs toward a light...a light that only exist in her mind. She looks aimlessly for her beloved mother through this long endless tunnel.

Shinji: Why won't they come and play with me? I don't want to build a sand castle all by myself...

Little Shinji Ikari is squatting down over a pile of damp sand. With a toy shovel in his hand, he begins to scoop up a bit of sand into an empty red pail. He looks up to see children playing on the swings with other children. Why won't they come and play with him...

Rei: Why...

Little Rei Ayanami, origin is unknown. Holding onto the hands of Gendo Ikari, she stares straight ahead with not a thought in her mind. Nothing bothered her. She is there for a purpose, a purpose she does not know of yet.

These little children travel into the unknown not knowing what they are to do or what their purpose is. That was 14 years ago. Do those memories count for anything these days? The Children, all 14-years-old now, lie silently in their beds thinking of their unforgettable childhood. Slowly, they drift off to sleep...dreaming up dreams of endless possibilities.
